

Originally converted from one of Bunbury's first town houses in 1882, the Prince of Wales Hotel was renovated in 1892 by then owner, Mayor of Bunbury Charles Wisby, spurred on by the local gold rush. At the time it hosted notable patrons such as His Excellency the Governor Sir Gerard Smith and Sir John Forrest.

Practically rebuilt in 1906, with final interior alternations in 1937, Bunbury's beloved Prince was transformed into the iconic building you see today. Over the last few years, publican Mitch Thorn has restored the Prince of Wales Hotel to its former glory, allowing guests to enjoy the hotel's rich 130 year history.

The private, upstairs Function Room in the Prince of Wales Hotel is available for a wide variety of functions including but not limited to Meetings and Private Parties. Functions can be fully catered for, including a variety of finger foods and platters, and they can include a full drink service.
